

Employment Contracts

In terms of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, Number 75 of 1997, as amended (the "Act") it is compulsory for employers to provide their employees with a written contract of employment or letter of appointment, covering the terms and conditions of their employment relationship.

Contact us should you need assistance!

www.normanbrett.co.za

